Marshall & Proffitt Win Golf Tournament

Doug Marshall and his guest, Wayne Proffitt, fired an even par round of 72 Sunday to go with Saturday's two under par 70 and edged Jerry Robinson and Bill McElrath to take the F.R.C.C. Member-Guest Golf Championship by one stroke.

Robinson and McElrath led the field of 62 teams at the end of 18 holes shooting a three under par 69 Saturday. Marshall and Proffitt pulled even with a 36 on the front nine Sunday while their opponents shot 37. Robinson and McElrath also used 37 strokes on the back nine and the winners came in with another 36. One stroke back in third place were Dudley Hill and Bobby Evans who also shot 72 Sunday to go with a previous 72 for 144.

Winning first place in the first flight were Jerry Burke and Bootie Pilcher followed by Plicky Williams and Steve Lawson in second and Doug Mitchell and Rick Powell third.

Second flight winners were O. H. Tolley and Tom Burton with T. T. Martin and T. T. Martin, Jr. first runners up and Wayne Brown and Ernie Hostetter second runners up.

Clarence Smith and Chuck Dorevich captured the third flight, W. P. Geisler and Vince Lusardi won second place prize and Gene Hartzell and Tom Russell were third.

Fourth flight honors were won by Fred Weakley and Doug McCraw, Bob Abernathy and Buster Jackson claimed second and Mike Seay and Jay Hawkes took third place.

Howard Ferguson of Farmville, playing as the guest of Billy Conner, eagled the par 4 sixth hole Saturday afternoon. He used a four iron to hole the ball from 182 yards out.

Ferguson also claimed a prize of one dozen golf balls by hitting his drive closest to the pin on the third hole Saturday. Bill Hawkins won the closest to pin contest Sunday. Ongest drive Saturday was claimed by Hoot Gibson while Tony Guthrie's guest, Bill Carter accomplished this feat Sunday. The players voted the boobie prize to Pro, Warren Moser for his pin placement on hole number four for Sunday's play which surrendered only eight birdies in two hundred forty-eight attempts.

Walter Hagen Golf Tourney Set For Play In Farmville

The famous Walter Hagen Golf Tournament is finally coming to the Southside Area, announced Jimmy H. Paul, Tournament Chairman.

Longwood College Golf Course in Farmville will be the site of the first annual Prince Edward Walter Hagen Golf Tournament scheduled for July 30-31. The 36-hole competition will feature players from all parts of Southside Virginia, both men and women, professionals and amateurs. Winnings scores will be based on best ball of foursome with both low net and low gross scores counting (maximum handicap of 27 is allowed for amateurs). For every ten teams entered, one winning team will qualify for state competition at the Homestead in Hot Springs on August 29-30, and winners there will go on to compete at the National Walter Hagen Golf Tournament at Disneyworld on December 2-3 in Orlando, Florida.

The Prince Edward Walter Hagen Golf Tournament is being organized and conducted by Jimmy H. Paul, Chairman; Mac Main, Professional in Charge; and Barbara Butcher, President, Prince Edward Unit of the American Cancer Society.

The first annual golf tournament is being sponsored by the Walter Hagen Foundation for the benefit of the American Cancer Society. The Walter Hagen Foundation was organized in 1970 by prominent business and professional men who admired "The Haig" who died from cancer in 1965. The Foundation is dedicated to promoting competive golf everywhere and to raising funds to support the valuable work of the American Cancer Society.

The tax-deductible entry fee of $25.00 per person or $100.00 per team (with business or individual sponsors) will be used to continue the fight against cancer through the Society's programs of Research Education, and Service. Entry forms can be obtained by contacting Mac Main at Longwood or your local club pro.

Conner Wins Prize In CVIGT

Jerry Conner with scores of 73-78-72-75 — 298 won second place in the first flight of the 72-hole Central Virginia Invitational Golf Tournament which ended Sunday. After 36 holes the 128 participants were divided into eight flights of sixteen players. Those in the Championship Flight played the final 36 holes from the blue tees while the remaining 112 played from the white tees.

Conner's best round, a par 72 at Ivy Hill, was aided by an eagle two on the Par 4 twelth hole. He used a five iron for his second shot which hit about 12 feet in front of the pin and rolled in the cup.

Winner of the championship flight was David Anthony of Lynchburg who defeated Art Costan, also of Lynchburg, by two strokes 285 to 287.

VA Question and Answers

Editor's Note: Following are representative questions answered daily by VA counselors. Full information is available at any VA office.

Q - I have a service-connected disability and qualify for the 10-point civil service employment preference. May my wife also get such preference for civil service employment?

A - No. However, if the veteran cannot be appointed to a civil service job due to his disability, the wife can be entitled to the 10-point preference. You and your wife cannot, at the same time, receive the preference.

Q - I am attending college under the GI Bill but am afraid I will have to drop out due to financial necessity. Can the VA help?

A - There are two VA programs that may enable you to continue your education pursuits, educational loans and the work-study program. To determine your eligibility for either program, please contact your nearest VA office.

Q - What is the eligibility criteria under which the VA may provide outpatient treatment for a medical condition not caused nor aggravated by military service?

A - Veterans with a service-connected disability rated at 50 per cent or more, those receiving aid and attendance allowances, Spanish - American War veterans and veterans receiving vocational rehabilitation training may receive outpatient care for any condition.
